Dr. Frank Pinkard Jr., Pastor

Reverend Clayton Myers, Jr.

Reverend Clayton Myers, Jr. was born February 6, 1930, to the proud parents Clayton, Sr. and Marie Myers in Aliquippa, PA. Clayton was the fourth of five siblings. Clayton was the only boy born to this union, and at an early age Clayton Confessed his faith in Jesus Christ and was Baptized. Clayton's formal education was there in the city of Aliquippa. Clayton's parents instilled a strong work ethic as well as a strict reverence for God. In 1950, Clayton united with Elizabeth King. Clayton's strong sense of responsibility was evident as he took a dominant role in the upbringing of Elizabeth's daughter Brenda. Clayton and Elizabeth respectfully ended their marriage. In April of 1951, Clayton answered the call to serve in the armed forces as a member of the United States Air Force. Clayton's strong work ethic accounted for many awards, certificates of training and decorations during his four years of active duty. In April 1955, Clayton ended his military commitment in Tucson, Arizona. As Clayton headed the call of destiny he migrated to Northern California. In 1966, after several employment endeavors Clayton began a rewarding career with the State of California, as a faculty member of the School for the Blind. Clayton's career lasted 26 years, his accomplishments are countless. Clayton's knack for helping people extended beyond his position as a counselor at the School for the Blind, there are endless testimonials of the positive influence that he had on people. Clayton's thirst for knowledge and call to Christian service are evident as he held many positions in various church organizations to include Pastor of Ennis Chapel C.O.G.I.C., President of Sunday School Department C.O.G.I.C. Northern California, Director of Education Youth Department C.O.G.I.C. Northern California, Charles Harrison Mason System of Bible College, President of Chapter 727 California State Employees Association, Associate Minister of the Evergreen Baptist Church, Program Chairman of the Baptist Ministers Union of Oakland, active member of the Pastors of Oakland Organization the list goes on. Clayton's academic accomplishments include Master of Theology Degree, Reed Christian College, Bachelor of Theology, Charles Harrison Mason Bible College, Bachelor of Arts Degree, Western Baptist Bible College, Evangelical Teacher Training Diploma, and Instructional Counselor, California School for the Blind. These are just a few of Clayton's notable academic accomplishments. In 1989, God rewarded Clayton with a jewel in the form of Yvonne Young. To this union Clayton took on the responsibility of guiding and mentoring Yvonne's three ambitious children, Kenneth, Jeffrey and Regina. Clayton was often quoted as saying that this union gave him a completely new understanding to family diversity. As time went on the family began to expand on many different levels. Clayton quickly became known as Poppa, Clink, Grandpa Clayton, Reverend Myers and Pastor. His cool calm demeanor had a soothing effect on his surroundings. Outside of speaking positives into people lives Clayton was fascinated by world events, medical research, nature and wildlife programs and of course creating the perfect environment for his jewel Yvonne. As collaborators Clayton and Yvonne eagerly accepted the ministry call to the J.L. Richard Terrance Ministry. Their ministry impact proved to be a Godsend, as they ministered to the many needs of the Terrance Family. This dynamic ministry duo continued to minister until Clayton's home going. Clayton leaves the following to celebrate and cherish his rich legacy. A devoted and loving Wife: Yvonne, Two Sons: Kenneth Young (Kelley) of Las Vegas, NV, Jeffrey Young of Los Angeles, CA, Two Daughters: Regina Alexander (Kelvin) of Pittsburg, CA, Brenda Sutton of Norwalk, CA, God-Son: Antoine Jones (Charisse) of Berkeley, CA, Eight Grand-children: Charles Young (Shannia), Brittney Young, Kenna Young, Andre Young, Rashad Young, Kelvin Alexander, Korey Alexander, Dunye Sutton. Two Great Grand-Daughters: Shaira and Caira Young. Three Sisters: Vera Thompson and Carlena Byron of Detroit, Mich., and Lucille Griffin of Aliquippa, PA, and a Host of Very Special Family Members, Nieces, Nephews and Friends.
